Apollo Giu in Bielefeld – Piano concert in the Small Hall of the Rudolf-Oetker-Halle

Bielefeld. On 24 April 2026 at 8 pm, the Italian composer and pianist Apollo Giu will perform his current programme, "Between Heaven and Earth", in the Small Hall of the Rudolf-Oetker-Halle.

The piano takes centre stage: with his own compositions, Apollo Giu creates a focused concert format that deliberately emphasises simplicity and sonic impact. The music moves between calm, minimalist passages and emotionally intense moments, inviting the audience to immerse themselves fully in the listening experience.

The Small Hall of the Rudolf-Oetker-Halle provides the perfect setting for this. The proximity to the stage allows for an intense sound experience, in which even subtle nuances and quiet dynamics become immediately perceptible.

With his programme, Apollo Giu appeals to an audience wishing to experience classical and contemporary piano music in an intimate atmosphere.
